

Getting to know: Cindy Lippincott

What is your favorite Bible verse and why?

Ephesians 3:20-21 "Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen

When we adopted the first time in 1993, this verse became real to me. I was amazed at how much more God does in our lives than we can even imagine.

What do you look back on now recognize how much it has impacted

My mom's example and training to have a purpose and make a difference. Her influence through music and writing has made a big impact. My dad's consistency on the importance of the Bible, reading it every evening in front of us kids and living it out.

Where did your interest of Bible Doctrines begin?

When my oldest two were toddlers and Bible Doctrines was just beginning, Lee Homoki brought the Joint Heirs to our church in Minerva, Ohio for services. It became a regular thing for Cowboy Lee to come speak. Ten to fifteen years before I was hired, I thought how I would enjoy working for Bible Doctrines, but I lived in Alabama at the time. God plants seeds in our hearts to bloom later, according to His purposes.
